Cabinet of Memories

Built from the nostalgia for intersecting cultures, the Cabinet of Memories is based on the proportions of a traditional East-Asian cabinet. The cabinet's devotion to daily objects is found in its reinterpreted design; book splines celebrate the craft of a publication's spine while varying sizes of drawers and doors wrap the cabinet. Intended to hold space for long-term care of objects, the Cabinet of Memories is derived from recollections of Yang's own family heirlooms.
