

Anjuli Bernstein

Verso

A more graphic expression of moire, created with opposing bands of indigo color that comes and goes from view. The name Verso refers to the backside of the page or artwork. This piece has two woven layers, and as one is on the face, the other hides on the back, and they switch places to create the surface and reveal the change in color.

Standard Materials:

Hand dyed abaca

Hanging Specifications:

Stretched, French cleat

Standard Dimensions:

Strainer: 37"L x 54.125"W

One of one